Noted Poet To Be Here Next Week

Robert Frost, well known American author, will give one public lecture on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in Memorial Hall during a visit next week with the College of Arts and Sciences.

Mr. Frost will also talk to a group of English majors and other interested in poetry at 3 p.m. Monday in Studio A of radio station WBKY in McVey Hall.

Last month Mr. Frost, who has written thirteen volumes of poetry, was selected for the award which is given every five years to the author of "the book considered most likely to attain the status of a classic." The book which won the honor for him was "Complete Poems, 1949."

Koffee Klub To Hear Robert Frost Monday

The Koffee Klub of the Student Union will sponsor an informal coffee hour with Robert Frost as guest on Monday at 4:30 in the Music Room, SUB.

Mr. Frost, who is 75, has been writing poetry more than half a century. In both England and America he has been honored as no American since Mark Twain. He has won four Pulitzer prizes and has been awarded 18 honorary degrees.

A teacher before he became a recognized poet, Mr. Frost has been a professor of poetry in residence at the University of Michigan, Amherst, Dartmouth, Yale, and Harvard.

Mr. Frost visited the campus for several informal conferences and one public appearance last December.

Air Cadets Organize Honorary

Six Air ROTC cadets have recently organized a chapter of the national Arnold Society for Air Cadets, a military honorary organization. It has been accepted by the University authorities.

The six charter members are G. P. Holbrook, J. D. Claborn, H. G. Fleener, H. W. Holtzclaw, S. B. Swope, and H. B. Scott.

Honorary members of the organization are Lt. Colonel E. G. Davis, head of the Air Science and Tactics department, and Captain E. D. Woellner, faculty adviser for the Society.

According to Capt. E. D. Woellner, the society "is designed to further the purposes, missions, traditions, and concepts of the US Air Force as a means of national defense, to promote American citizenship, and to create a closer and more effective relationship among active components of the air force and civilian population."

Browsing Room To Be Dedicated Wednesday

The Browsing Room of the Margaret I. King Library will be formally dedicated at 4 p.m. Wednesday as the Thruston Browsing Room.

The room is being named in honor of Rogers Clark Ballard Thruston, who was prominent in work dealing with the history of the state until his death in 1946. A member of the Filson Club, Thruston had an honorary LL.D. degree conferred on him in 1942 by UK.

The dedicatory speech will be given by the Hon. Thruston B. Morton, grandnephew of Thruston. A plaque will be placed in the room along with a photographic portrait, given by the Filson Club.

Yule Ceremony Held In SUB

Christmas season got officially underway on the campus Wednesday afternoon with the traditional Yuletide ceremony, "Hanging of the Greens," in the Great Hall of the SUB.

Members of the Student Union Board and the YW-YMCA cabins, wearing black gowns and marching in a procession, hung wreaths of evergreens in the windows of the candle-light SUB.

Two groups from the Music department, a string quartet and the University Madrigal singers, presented a program of Christmas music. The large audience joined in the program by singing several Christmas carols.

"The Christmas Story," St. Luke 2:1-20, was read by Virginia Henry. Priscilla Hancher told the story of the "Littlest Angel," and Kathy Barnett related the legend of how candles came to be lighted at Christmas.

Members of the string quartet were Misses Mary Carolyn Carver and Mabel Gum, Violin; Miss Mary Anne Good, viola; and Miss Ruth White, cello. The Madrigal singers were under the direction of Aino Kiviniemi.

Contest Open To Essayists

The Department of History is sponsoring the Philo M. Bennett Contest for the best essay on parliamentary government, according to Dr. Carl B. Cone, committee member.

Open to all students, the prize is $40 for the best essay. Length of the work is to be from 5000 to 8000 words and the winner will be announced at the Honor's Day Convocation.

To be eligible the essay must be typewritten, have a bibliography and footnotes, and be mailed to either Dr. Robert G. Lund, Dr. Enno E. Kraehe, or Dr. Carl B. Cone, committee members, before April 1, 1950.

Further information may be obtained from any member of the committee.

Arts and Sciences Students Must See Advisors

All students registered in the College of Arts and Sciences should see their faculty advisors before the Christmas holidays.

Pat Moore Is Crowned Kyian Queen

Pat Moore, representing Chi Omega sorority, was crowned Kyian queen at the annual Kentucky dance sponsored by Lamp and Cross, senior men's leadership, Saturday night.

The queen's first and second attendants were Carolyn Crutchlow and Cora Frances Saffel, respectively, both representatives of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. The other attendants were Jane Harter, Alpha Xi Delta; Kay McCabe, independent; Louise Wilson, Jewell Hall, and Kathleen Carter, Delta Delta Delta.

The queen was crowned by Charles Patrick, editor of the Kentucky.

Fred Nichols, president of Lamp and Cross, served as master of ceremony.

Ugly Man Announced

Ralph McCracken, a representative of Triangle fraternity, was the winner of the Ugly Man contest sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity, which was announced following the coronation of the queen.

McCracken was presented with two shirts, two pairs of socks, and two ties from Pussells. His date, Mary Dunlap, was presented with a box of Maud Muller's candy.

George Rybolt, Phi Sigma Kappa candidate, placed second in the contest. He was given a sport shirt from Martin's and a five dollar gift certificate from Bonanza's.

Cooper Was Chairman

The Pi Kappa Alpha candidate, Jimmy Long, won third place. He was presented with a record album from Shackleton's.

Harry Cooper, chairman of the contest, was the master of ceremonies for the Alpha Phi Omega awards.

Following both the queen and ugly man presentations, the recent plagues of Lamp and Cross were introduced by Fred Nichols.

Banquet Is Held By Home Ec Club

Thirty-eight students were initiated into the Home Economics Club at 6:30 p.m. yesterday in the SUB. Prof. Agnes Aspesen, a member of the Home Economics faculty of Berea College, spoke on "Life and Education in Norway" at the initiation banquet.

MISS CHRISTMAS SEAL CANDIDATES (not the Arlec but the Christmas variety) pose in the SUB. Not present for the picture were: Barbara Harris, Chi Omega, Sara Davidson, Zeta Tau Alpha, and Gloria Travis, Tau Alpha Pi.

Local Tuberculosis Association Has First 'Miss Christmas Seal' Contest

The "Miss Christmas Seal" contest, first of its kind ever held in the United States, got underway Thursday night, Dec. 1, when contestants representing each of the sororities on the campus appeared in the downtown Christmas parade on a float sponsored by the Lexington-Fayette County Tuberculosis Association.

The contestants are Eleanor Gash, Alpha Delta Pi; Betty Beam, Alpha Gamma Delta; Martha Gauntt, Alpha Xi Delta; Barbara Harris, Chi Omega; Helen Helmsley, Delta Delta Delta; Virginia Myers, Delta Zeta; Nancy Brewer, Kappa Alpha Theta; Joan Graham, Kappa Alpha Theta; Guthrie, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Gloria Travis, Tau Alpha Pi; and Sara Davidson, Zeta Tau Alpha.

Students who have not received ballots in their mail may obtain them at sorority houses, or by calling the Lexington-Fayette County Tuberculosis Association.

The contest will end Friday, December 15. The winner will be presented with a loving cup from the Lexington-Fayette County Tuberculosis Association.

UK Foreign Students Talk To Kentucky Rotary Clubs

Through speaking engagements arranged for them by the University YMCA, foreign students at UK are getting an opportunity to tell something about their respective countries to Rotary club members in Kentucky towns.

According to Bart N. Peak, executive secretary of the YMCA, who arranges the speaking engagements, there are more requests to hear the students than can be met.

Mr. Peak is moderator.

The students speak, telling, as they can about their countries, their answer questions. Mr. Peak, who travels to local towns with the foreign students, acts as moderator for the programs.

Participating in the speaking programs are Marna Lubbers, Holland; Kristina Berenstrahle, Sweden; Ave Teresa Rios, Panama; Maudsudan Ruparel, India; Dirk Van Cough, Holland; and Ruth Reinisch, Germany. Some of these students have visited Rotary Clubs at Lawrenceburg, Maysville, Georgetown, and Somerset.

One of the objects of the Rotary Club is the advancement of international understanding and good will and peace through world fellowship of business and professional men, united in the idea of service.

Club Associations

A few of the foreign students have associated with Rotary Clubs in their native countries.

Mr. Berenstrahle's father was formerly a Rotarian in Sweden.

Miss Rios formerly resided in a Rotary Club in Panama, and Mr. Ruparel is at present a Rotarian in India.

The University YMCA, according to Mr. Peak, is "trying to do everything it can in aiding the students who come from other countries to study at UK to learn something of the best of our culture so they may act as ambassadors of good will for the United States in the future."

Proceeds of both public performances will be donated to the Children's Bureau to purchase gifts, baskets, and toys for the children of Fayette County. A performance

Sunday Program To Feature Variety Of Christmas Music

By Joe Coyle

Performances by two new members of the University's music staff will highlight the annual Christmas Carol program presented Sunday afternoon and evening in Memorial Hall by the University Choristers.

Miss Helen Houdon, soprano, and Mr. Arnold Blackburn, organist, will appear as soloists in a program that will feature various types of Christmas music ranging from old and modern religious themes to folk songs and spirituals. The afternoon concert will begin at 4 p.m. and the evening performance will be given at 8 p.m.

Directed by Miss Lewis

The choristers, under the direction of Mildred Lewis, is a group of singers composed of students, faculty, and staff members of the University, and several townspeople.

Memorial Hall will be open to the public at 3 p.m. for the afternoon concert and at 7 p.m. for the evening performance.

The five-part program will include, in part one, "Fanfare for Christmas Day," by Shaw; "Masters in This Hall," a carol from Charles; "Sweet Little Boy Jesus," by John Jacob Niles; "Glory To That New-Born King," from Negro spirituals; and "The Shepherds Had An Angel," by Besly.

Wells Carol Included

"A Joyous Carol," by Wells; "Little Lullaby," a Gaelic Christmas lullaby; "Carillon Hallelujah," by Perry; and "A Merry Christmas," a

West Carol, English Carol, will be included in the second part.

Part three will be an audience participation part of the program in which each will sing as "Frank," "The Herald Angel," "Angels From the Realms of Glory," "Silent Night," and "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear" will be sung.

"Gesu, Bambino," by Pietro Van, and "Lullaby for Ye Sons and Daughters," by Lywood Farmam, will make up the fourth part.

The fifth and last portion of the program will include "Glory to God in the Highest" by Pergolesi, and "The Shepherd's Story" by Dickinson.

Townsend Elected To Executive Committee

William H. Townsend, Lexington attorney-at-law, has been elected to membership on the executive committee of the UK Alumni Association. He succeeds L. K. Frankel, who died last week.

The new member holds two degrees from UK, the bachelor of laws degree and an honorary doctor of laws degree.

Mr. Townsend is a noted authority on the life and family of Abraham Lincoln. He is the author of numerous articles on Lincoln, including a newspaper column entitled "Three Minutes with Lincoln."

Dr. Chamberlain To Speak At Education Convocation

The College of Education will have a convocation for all education students on Wednesday at 10 a.m. in the auditorium of the Education building.

Dr. Leo M. Chamberlain will be the speaker.

Veterans Administration Asks Non-Returnees To Report

Any veteran in training under Public Law 346 who does not plan to return to school for the second semester should report this fact at the Veterans' Office, room 201, Administration Building, immediately after the Christmas holidays, according to C. F. Shapton of the Veterans' division of the University Personnel Office.

Veterans under this statute law who cannot or choose not to come for the second semester must obtain approval from the Veterans' Administration before registration. Instructions for securing approval may be obtained at the Veterans' Personnel Office.

Agronomists Initiate

Students of the Agronomy Club, Lexington, will initiate Monday night at the Agronomy Club. The program will feature Jack Taylor, Adlai Brown, John Perdue, and William Struble.

SGA Elections To Be Tuesday

Legislators Invited To Home Games

Members of the State Legislature will be extended an invitation to have 32 seats at each home basketball game, the Student Government Association voted Monday night.

These 32 seats are allotted to SGA by the Athletic Association. Tentative plans are that Bob Wharton, president of SGA, will appear before both the Senate and House of Representatives when they convene in January to extend the invitation.

Guignol Play Season Opens In February

The Guignol Theater will officially open its 1950 season with a presentation of Euripides' ageless tragedy, "Medea," Feb. 13. The play will run for one week.

Miss Melba McCloud, a graduate student in the Department of Ancient Languages, made the translation of "Medea" from the original Greek for the Guignol group. The translation was especially adapted for the stage by Mrs. Lolo Robinson and Mr. O. G. Brockett, members of the Guignol staff.

Mr. Wallace N. Briggs, producer-director of the Guignol staff, will conduct tryouts to select a cast on Friday evening, Jan. 6, at 7:30 in the Guignol Theater.

Physics Club Has Initiation

Four engineering faculty members and 27 students were initiated into Sigma Pi Sigma, honorary physics fraternity, Monday.

Members initiated are Nathan B. Allison, electrical engineering instructor; Merl Baker, assistant professor of mechanical engineering; Estel B. Penrod, head of the department of mechanical engineering; Harry A. Romanowicz, professor of electrical engineering; Russell C. Beauchamp, Richard J. Beaver, Gino E. Carl, Allison H. Caudill, Thomas H. Clore, Jackson R. Cowan, and Robert C. Deen.

Group Hears Dr. Donovan

President H. L. Donovan and flambeau Tapp, assistant to the president, will be the principal speakers at a meeting of the Committee of 240, University service organization, Monday at 3 p.m. in Memorial Hall.

Members of the Committee, composed of two students from each of Kentucky's 120 counties, represent the University in their home communities, giving information about UK to high school seniors, UK alumni, and other interested persons.

The committee functions under the direction of the public relations department.

Tickets On Sale At Guignol For Shakespearean Plays

A return engagement of the Margaret Webster Shakespeare Company will feature performances of "Julius Caesar" and "The Taming of the Shrew" tonight and tomorrow night, respectively, in the Henry Clay High School Auditorium. Each show will begin at 8 p.m.

Price for the performances, range from 75 cents to $2, plus tax. Tickets are on sale at the Guignol Theatre box-office in the Fine Arts Building until 4 p.m. today. From then until the closing performance Saturday night tickets will be on sale at the Henry Clay Auditorium.

Made Debut In London

Margaret Webster, director of the company, is a veteran of the theater, having made her acting debut in London. Returning to New York City, she has directed "Hamlet" and "Henry IV," "Twelfth Night," and "Macbeth."

Miss Webster's most recent acting was in "Alice in Wonderland" produced by the American Repertory Theatre. She also directed that company's production of "Henry VIII" and "What Every Woman Knows."

Eighteen Candidates File For Offices

Two Engineering College candidates have filed independently this week and four students from the Agriculture and Commerce Colleges have been nominated by the Constitutional Party for the Student Government Association election to be held Tuesday.

Eighteen candidates are now on the election slate for the 10 vacancies in SGA.

Election booths will be in the respective colleges except the College of Arts and Sciences, which will have its booth in the SUB. The polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Candidates included on the SGA ballot are: Fischer, independent, and David Brown, Constitutional. Upperclassman: Preben Haagenen, independent, and Tom Clore, Constitutional.

Candidates for the following seven vacancies are all Constitutionalists: College of Arts and Sciences — Upperclassman: Carl Faith and Jim Nichols, Lowerclassman: Joe Lee and Bob Wilson, Upperclasswoman: Linda Smith and Betty Ball, Lowerclasswoman: Dot Neal and Betty Bryant.

College of Education: Representative at large: Emmie Patrick and Bob Gregory.

College of Agriculture: Upperclassman: Ike Rouse and George Vosler. College of Commerce: Lowerclassman: Bosworth Todd and Bill Dougherty.

No candidates have been nominated or have filed for the College of Law vacancy.

Deadline For Vague Extended To Jan. 10

The deadline for manuscripts to be submitted to Vague, the campus magazine, has been extended to Jan. 10.

The magazine, which accepts short stories, poems, plays, and other forms of creative writing, is sponsored by Chi Delta Phi, honorary literary group.

Students should send manuscripts to Virginia Henry, University P. O. box 5944, or Dr. Jane Haselden, dean of women's office.

Life And The Facts

After carefully reading what appears to be a press release from the Minneapolis Lakers in the Dec. 5 issue of Life magazine, a paraphrasing Kernel editor airmailed the following to the magazine's editors:

"On the night of Dec. 2 in Indianapolis, the same two professional basketball teams to which your article of Dec. 5 refers played another 45 minutes of rousing basketball.

The Olympians won, 56 to 65, and it provided a clue to the relative merits of professional and collegiate basketball."

"The game proved one other thing: that a good big man can beat a good huge man in basketball. The good big man was Alex Groza, etc.

We students at the former home of the Fabulous Four are still laughing—Life hit the news stands the morning after—because Big Al out-pointed Huge George by seven markers.

And, incidentally, what is Rapid Ralph Beard's standing in conference scoring?

Sincerely,
George Reynolds, Editor,
The Kentucky Kernel."

A Suggestion

Some of the officials of the Athletic Association are of the opinion that the new Memorial Coliseum will be near enough to completion for basketball games to be held in it sometime in February.

We believe that there could be no more fitting way to dedicate the huge new building than by presenting the present Indianapolis Olympians team (plus Kenny Rollins, if arrangements can be made) in the first basketball game held there.

Athletic Director Shively said recently that it would probably be impossible for the Olympians to play the present UK team. However, many professional teams should be interested in playing the Olympians in an exhibition game.

Some group stands a chance of making a good sum of money if it is willing to sponsor such a show. It's hard to guess how many Central Kentuckians would turn out to see it, since few persons other than students ever saw them play in Alumni Gymnasium.

Certainly most of the student body would like to see those five numbers—15, 12, 27, 26 and 23—on the backs of the men who made them famous here at UK. After that, they could be retired as planned, in the house that Rupp built.

A Place, A Spirit

The University's technical movie, "The University of Kentucky, A Place, A Spirit," should be seen by every student on campus—not as a duty, but for real enjoyment. The production is skillfully handled, and should prove of interest to students who want to see their University as thousands of high school students in Kentucky have viewed it recently.

Jones Answers Seating Questions In Letter To President Of SGA

Mr. Robert A. Wharton
President, Student Government Association,
University of Kentucky
Dear Bob:

Shortly after the Kentucky versus Georgia football game, the Student Bar Association of the College of Law at a special meeting appointed Denver Adams, Robert Stephens, and myself as a committee to call on Dr. Donovan to discuss the handling of the students at the gates at future games and the possibility of obtaining better seats for the student body as a whole.

We were told that steps would be taken to eliminate as near as possible any crowding and jamming at the student gates during later football games. From all indications this problem has been handled very effectively.

The problem of obtaining better seats for the students is purely a financial one as pointed out by Dr. Donovan. The Athletic Association is an incorporated body and is a separate organization from the University. Its officers are members of the staff of the University and its president is Dr. Donovan. The Association finances the athletic program at the University including football, basketball and minor sports.

Dr. Donovan showed the committee a copy of the current budget of the Association. For this year the estimated expenditures were about $369,000.00. This figure includes coaches salaries, both basketball and football, athletic scholarships, air travel for the teams, scouting expenses, annual payments on part of the costs of the stadium and the new field house, and many other items too numerous to mention.

The Association's major source of revenue is gate receipts though some money is obtained from the state. No part of the students registration fees is paid to the Association for the student ticket book. The registration fee remains the same regardless of whether or not the University has a football team, and this is illustrated by the war years when there was no football here.

A survey of three southern conferences show that Kentucky students have better seats than many schools and as good as any. The question is whether the student is to have the best seats or Kentucky is to remain in lifetime football.

Dr. Donovan was interested in any changes the students might make within the present seating zone. A plan was offered whereby the students each week before a home game trade their ticket for a reserved seat ticket and eliminate the two hour wait before game time.

Another plan of seating by seniority was offered. Seniors first, then juniors and so on. Dr. Donovan indicated that one of the above plans or others could be adopted if the members so desired.

At a recent interview with Mr. Bernie Shively, the Athletic Director, I was informed that the present seating arrangements at the basketball games will be abandoned when the new fieldhouse is completed and all students will be able to see all of the home games.

I hope this will answer some of the students' questions for you.

Sincerely yours,

Jerry Jones.

Jerry is a member of the SGA assembly, and his letter is in the nature of a report to the body's president concerning student complaints about seating arrangements.—Ed.

PORTER'S POLL

Student Apathy Expressed On The Function Of SGA

Question of the week: What do you know about SGA?

ANN MACKLIN: "SGA tries but the students don't give it support because it has no power."

MARILYN FAULKNER: "Bob Wharton is president, isn't he?"

MIKE GRAINE: "Why don't they get out a pamphlet telling the students about the BOMBASTIC bills they are passing? Also, why don't they tell us how they are spending their money?"

GENE PHILLIPS: "Nothing, because you never hear the crowd in the grill discussing it."

LUCIA BLAND: "It is an organization you only hear about at election time—after that all is null."

ELLIS FOSTER: "The only thing wrong is the limit of authority, the administration gives it. If the students would get behind it, they could get more power."

WINTER COLLINS: "It's cheaper than basketball."

DICK PUGHAN: "If it is going to be a social organization, as I think it should be, then the students should get together with the faculty and run the University."

PATTY SHORT: "Nothing."

FRANCES WEST: "They have meetings."

BOB WILLINGHAM: "I don't know anything, because I don't feel around with them like that."

EYRNE FAIRCHILD: "They have representatives that are supposed to get together with the faculty and run the University."

BILL WHITEHOUSE: "I just don't know."

NITA POWERS: "I don't know by representative of the minority group on campus instead of the majority."

FAT CONWAY: "I don't know anything about it."

RUTH COMBS: "I don't know enough about it to make a comment."

DAVE COMBS: "I've been here four years and I still don't know much about it."

ROLLY LEACH: "I don't know anything about it."

BOB NIKOLAS: "They have no power. They are not the voice of the students but the voice of the faculty."

EDITH COMBS: "Nothing."

HAYWOOD ALVES: "What is it?"

CHARLES MOORE: "I don't know anything about it. What is it anyway?"

GEORGE RYBOLT: "What is SGA?"

BETTY ANN FOSTER: "They have a lot of good ideas, but they don't assert themselves enough to put these ideas across."

KENTUCKY KERNEL

Miss Pat Moore, Chi Omega, smiles as she is presented as the 1950 Kentucky Queen. Miss Moore was crowned at the annual Coronation Ball in the SUB last weekend.

(Inset, lower left) Ralph McCracken, Triangle, tells how it feels to be 'Ugly Man'. Ralph was named winner of Alpha Phi Omega's Annual contest at the dance.

The Spice of Life

By Jobie Anderson and Ramon Morgan

Christmas dances are here by the dozens. The SN, ATO, Phi Sig, and Alpha Sig formal tonight will set the mood for the holiday spirit. Last week's Sig Ep, "Dream Girl" affair was a goodie. Congratulations, Nancy Camp. That smile just matches that big shiny trophy. Louisa Wilson wants us to make it known that she is not pinned and after seeing Andy Moats wearing both SN pins we are inclined to believe it.

Lee Dold is working hard for honors from Rodney Beck. She's out to make him forget all about any Louisville interests.

Flash! Crawford, the Kappa Sig here has returned to the UK woods. Betty Fish saw him on the streets of her home town during Thanksgiving and reported to the broken hearted Kay Sigs. They threw a huge party on his return, raw hamburger and all. Guess our trees are better after all.

Casanova of the week: Paul Dilligham (this is a paid political advertisement). Judith Lumart and Gus Clarke have had a definite parting of the ways. We'll now have a slight pause while gal and hopeful fellas rush to the telephones.

A great turnout on Main Street for the Santa Claus parade but the rain drove many of the student body to the Cottage. 'Tis rumored that Old Saint Nick was none other than Col. Fish. Meeting!

Ted Bates provided a lovely pair of legs for the winding dragon. Ruth McCracken went to Indiana U. over the weekend. Interested campus lovers beware! This may become a habit.

Another traveler is Mary Simpson. She goes home every Friday with the tale to local interests that she is home to see Momma. We heard of a most amusing radio announcer by the name of Jack Murphy. We are sorry that this is a little late but congratulations to Frank Stone and Lib Rollins. They were pinned a couple of weeks ago.

"Day" light and Bobby Hatchett are now members of a quadrangle since "Bear Shape" Duchene threw

Louisville Pharmacy Notes

Members of the Senior Class and their wives were guests of the Eli Lilly Company on November 20, 21, 22, at the biological and manufacturing plant at Indianapolis, Indiana. Entertainment included reservations to the Sonja Henie Ice Show and a dinner dance.

The Sophomore Class is sponsoring a Christmas dance on December 15, in the Rainbow Room of the Henry Clay Hotel. William E. Monroe, president of the class, is in charge of arrangements.

Dr. Kenneth M. Sted, Chief of the Cincinnati station of the Federal Food and Drug Administration will speak to the members of the American Pharmaceutical Association in the WKLO Ballroom of the Henry Clay Hotel on December 8 at 9:00 a.m. Milton E. Gardner, president of the student branch of the A. Ph. A. will introduce the speaker.

Kappa Psi fraternity held their initiation banquet at the Seelbach Hotel on November 28. Those initiated were Richard H. Bryant, Joe D. Clement, Hubert H. Dennis, Louis E. Ferguson, Jay M. Humberger, William McCounell, James Sims, R. H. Stone, Charles Wather, and Jack Woods. Hubert H. Dennis was voted the outstanding pledge.

APO Elects Officers

Omer Stikeleather has recently been elected president of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity.

Other officers include Joe Craig, executive vice president; Glenn Johnson, vice president in charge of service; Martin Swanson, vice president in charge of membership; Wesley Dickens, vice president in charge of program; Wilfred Lott, vice president in charge of publicity; Clair Langbrake, social vice president.

Tom Smith, treasurer; Louis Whipple, secretary; Harry Lesley, corresponding secretary; Gail Caldwell, historian; William Hepburn, sergeant at arms; and Gene Myles, chaplain.

New pin sure will shine!

Elliot Jones could be found beating his fists on the downtown sidewalk last Sunday yelling "Inez! Inez!" What in the world???

John Blankenship and Inez Black have relighted their old flame. This may be our answer. Don't worry Elliot, spring is not too far.

Percy Walker is working the Frankfort district now in search of dates.

George Rybolt says he can't get any of the gals to give him a tumble since the "Ugly Man" contest. He should worry! Ralph McCracken gets three cheers from this department for sportsmanship and prettiness.

Suzie Cooper and Jess Bullinger have quit their game of hide and seek and have settled down to playing more satisfying corner sports.

All these argyles! Jack Judy really loved his golfing pair. Tons of holes! Oh well, we can't always be original!

Our best to Pat More, Kentuckian Queen. Maybe it was Florida sunshine that "glittered" her with that sparkle, but she's one of the bestest dishes we've had on campus for a long time. Isn't that right Jack Ballantine?

The KA's had a good old southern party at Club Joy. Those confederates know the secret to a ripping time.

Bob McDaniel's new nickname is "Slim".

Eel Cannon still isn't satisfied he can't understand why he didn't win the pretty-boy contest.

Jim Darst is the new Chi O "Dream Boy".

Have Chapman and Trudie Carey ought to start latching on to each other. They're so cute!!

George Cannon, Paul Pratt, and Ralph Wilson displayed some of our UK lassies at the Delta Chi formal at Indiana U last weekend.

Have another scintillating weekend but save those pennies for the Florida ray!! We just must have some big parties!

Army Commissions Available To Women Grads Or Seniors

College women are now eligible to become commissioned officers in the Women's Army Corps, Regular Army.

Applicants must be graduates, or members of the senior class, and between the ages of 21 and 27 at the time of appointment. They must be physically fit, U.S. citizens, single, and with no dependents under 18 years of age. Age waivers may be granted in certain cases to women who served in World War II.

After initial competitive screening, applicants will be given appointments as second lieutenants in the Organized Reserve Corps, and ordered on extended active summer duty to attend a basic course at Camp Lee, Va. They will receive pay and allowances of their grade while on this duty.

Upon satisfactory completion of the Camp Lee course, candidates will apply for Regular Army commissions and appointments will be given those fully qualified. Those not meeting Regular Army requirements may be selected for remaining on extended duty, or they may seek relief from further duty.

Applications and further information can be obtained at ROTC headquarters. Col. G. T. Mackenzie, head of the Department of Military Science, will assist anyone interested.

Military Department Emphasizes Advantages Of The US Regular Army Officer Program

This is the fourth in a series of articles released by the military department, to point out the opportunities the Army offers to young men of the ROTC who can measure up to Regular Army standards for career officers.

General George Washington once spoke about the appointment of officers in the Regular Army in this way—"When it is known how much the conduct and bravery of an officer influence the men, how much a commanding officer is answerable for the behavior of the inferior officer, and how much his good or ill success in time of action depends upon the conduct of each particular officer—does it not appear then that the appointing of officers is a thing that should require the greatest circumspection?"

The Officer Personnel Act of 1947 provides for regular army promotion by selection and thereby affords an opportunity to ambitious and capable individuals to work their way upward more rapidly than would be the case if promotion were attained only in order of initial standing by length of service. The school system of the Army has been vastly increased to improve the professional knowledge of officers. The newly established pay increases now provide remuneration equal to, and in a great many cases, in excess of salaries currently being offered college graduates by civilian businesses and industries. And as always, the Army still stands head and shoulders above private enterprise in its benefits for retirement or separation for physical disability.

Officer Security
In the Army a man not only has security of career, but has security during his declining years. After thirty years of commissioned service, the Regular Army officer can retire at three-quarters pay in the highest grade held, and the emoluments received are based upon the amount of active service performed.

The United States' position as a world leader in the struggle for peace and freedom requires that we be physically strong if we are to discharge the responsibilities which that leadership entails. It is evident in the history of war that national weakness threatens both freedom and peace by encouraging aggression.

With thousands of new men coming into the service and with its world-wide commitments, the Army needs more qualified officers in the regular establishment. The Army's work today is to guard peace—it is important work and it requires the best of our manhood.

Learns Theory
Being Regular Army is a big job and its potentialities and rewards make it the greatest career a young man could choose. An Army officer learns theory and tentatively applies it under supervision. Then he establishes his aptitude for certain assignments by actual performance on duty. He receives additional schooling and becomes a recognized specialist in allied fields. He distinguishes himself as an able commander, executive or technical expert. He is performing the supreme service of his fellow citizens and to the men and women in uniform who depend upon him.

A Regular Army officer is a member of one of our oldest and most respected professions. As the physician pledges his life to his patients, the Army officer pledges his to the service of his country. He gives it his best, to match the cunning of any potential foreign foe, and these efforts may be directed in any one of dozens of fascinating fields.

How We Met

My favorite tune at the moment (it's pure coincidence that I recorded it for Victor) is "Give Me Your Hand." "Give me your hand, let me be near." Here is a classy proposal of marriage set to music, which should help a lot of bashful swains.

"Give Me Your Hand" started me thinking about married couples in show business. I looked around and came up with a few sidelights on well known couples, how they met, and how their marriage influenced their careers.

Take Bea Wain and Andre Baruch, known to the butcher and baker as Mr. and Mrs. Baruch. They met on a Kate Smith show. Just said "hello" casually, as you do on a big program. What followed sounds like a gag to me, but Andre swears it's true. Seems he hadn't been feeling too well. As the show went on, he felt worse and worse. He hung on until the program was over, then picked a quiet corner and fainted. (So he says.) In the confusion, Bea was the only one who noticed the limp bundle of Baruch. She (to quote Andre) "rushed over with a pitcher of ice water which she poured all over my new tuxedo." Things like that take the formality out of a first meeting. Andre says he got even by marrying the girl.

Stanley and Helen Melba share one of the most unusual careers in show business. Their firm produces shows and supplies entertainment for a large hotel chain, for conventions, charitable events, society parties, and anything else which calls for top entertainment. You just call them up and say, "A few hundred intimate friends are dropping in next Saturday. Will you please put on a fashion show and send over a few jugglers, a magician and a name band?" They take it from there.

Stanley and Helen met at a party when Helen was 16, Stanley a few years older. They had a long engagement, and Helen was every bit of 19 when they married. At that time, Stanley was playing saxophone in Ozzie Nelson's band. He switched to a job on Wall Street, intending to be the standard model husband. But, Wall Street failed to reward him properly, and he had to take an orchestra job on the side. Finally, he organized his own band. He mixed up the books so thoroughly that Helen stepped in as bookkeeper. Now, she's a full-time partner, staging shows and helping with the management of seven orchestras.

Tex McGary and Jinx Falkenburg met when Tex interviewed Jinx for the Daily Mirror in 1941. She was a starlet and an up-and-coming model. Tex wrote editorial copy and did a daily feature column for the Mirror. Their paths kept crossing during the next few years. This was remarkable, because both of them were traveling all over the world, Tex in the Air Force and Jinx with the USO. At last, Tex discovered that Jinx was about to leave the United States for Europe just as he was due back. He cabled a mutual friend in New York: "Locate Jinx. Tell her to stall. Guy who wants to marry her en route home." It worked and today—well, you know what a change marriage has made in those two careers.

While we're on the subject of early romances, I just can't resist mentioning "he-man" Mitch Ayres, our conductor on the Chesterfield Supper Club. You know, most people don't think of Mitch as a Romeo, at least not the kind of a guy who falls in love with a gal and can't eat. In 1936, Mitch met his wife, Georganna, in Hollywood while he was working on a movie at an outdoor location scene. He made cute conversation with her between the scenes, dated her a few times and then left the coast on a tour. Strangely enough, he found himself avoiding dates after that and suddenly realized that he was up to his neck in love. He married Georganna shortly afterward, that is, as soon as he could get back to the coast.

One of my favorite "how-we-met" stories comes from a versatile and distinguished show business couple, Kitty Carlisle and Moss Hart. Author-producer Hart and actress-singer Carlisle, when pressed for a story on how they met, came up with a beautifully simple one. "We can't remember," they said. "We've known each other for years."

Dr. Clark To Speak On State Politics

Dr. Thomas D. Clark, head of the Department of History, will be the guest speaker of the Campus Democratic Club at 4 p.m. Tuesday in room 128 of the SUB, according to Tommy Underwood, president.

The theme of his speech will be the political history of the state.

National Club Elects Blair UK-Berea Debaters Discuss US Attitude Toward Orient

Virgil Blair, a member of the UK Poultry Judging Team, was elected secretary-treasurer of the National Collegiate Poultry Club at a meeting held recently in Chicago.

Blair, along with teammates Shelby Brammer, Herbert Brown, and Tommy Carter, attended the National Livestock Exposition in Chicago where they placed third in a national poultry judging contest. Individual honors went to Brown, who placed third in the marketing class, and to Brammer, who placed seventh. There were 17 competing teams.

Newman Club Hears Five Football Players

Five UK football stars were entertained at a meeting of the Newman Club in the Card Room of the SUB Tuesday night. The players were Allen Hamilton, Bill Schnaffit, Dom Fucci, Al Bruno, and Bill Leskovar.

Allen Hamilton spoke on "What Is Wrong With the American Girl." Bill Schnaffit gave a speech on "Ideal Marriage," and Dom Fucci spoke on "How a Couple Should Act on a Date."

Bruno and Leskovar entertained with songs.

Freshman Honorary Initiates 13 Sophs

Thirteen sophomores were recently initiated into Phi Eta Sigma, freshman men's honorary, at a banquet held in the SUB.

Those initiated were William D. Bakhaus, Summer E. Bortman, Charles E. Coyle, James W. Crav, Richard J. Fuchs, Robert D. Hann Jr., Donald L. Hochstrasser, Frank Kascia Jr., Harold J. Leue, James W. McCurry, Thomas A. Pardue Jr., Charles E. Peck, and Arthur W. Purkel.

Booklet Discusses Writers' Difficulties

A free booklet, outlining opportunities and difficulties of new writers seeking publication of their works, is now available through the Exposition Press, 251 Fourth Avenue, New York City.

Hard-to-sell books on special subjects are discussed in the 32-page pamphlet.

It may be obtained upon request from the Exposition Press.

The Debate Team will compete in five rounds of discussion progression at Berea College tomorrow.

The question for discussion will be: What should be the foreign policy of the United States towards the nations of the Orient?

Students who will make the trip are Betty Compton, Ellen Carter, Betty Hammett, Dorothy Redford, Mary Arrowood, Sidney Neal, B. Ferguson, Edward Rue, Harold C. In, Robert Shearer, and Robert Smith.

The debate team placed fourth in the Kentucky State Debate Tournament held at Kentucky Wesleyan College last week.

Indiana Library Head Addresses UK Staff

Dr. Robert Miller, director of libraries at the University of Indiana, was guest speaker at the staff meeting of the Margaret I. King Library Saturday.

An authority on library architecture, Dr. Miller also discussed the problems of special graduate and research collections, and noted the future requirements of the University.

Polly Warren and Joyce Crutehfield were hostesses during the coffee hour following the lecture.

Kentucky Basketeers:

Jim Line

By Kent Hollingsworth

Jim Line, who does everything but cut bread and play tennis with his left hand, started off the Kentucky Wildcat basketball season with a 30-foot shot that swished the nets for the first Kentucky points of the season, and the first of his 37 against Indiana Central.

The old left-hander, on his way to break Alex Groza's team mark of 38 set last year, charged down the floor on a fast break play. It was two on one, the defensive man staying close to Captain Barnstable expecting Line to pass off; but Line dribbled up to the foul circle, started to shoot; then thought better of it, went in for a crisp shot; the defensive man moved over to Line, and in a frantic attempt to get off the record breaking shot, Line charged into him, committing his fifth personal foul of the game. Nine minutes and 15 seconds remained when he was ejected from the game, ample time for even a blind man on a crutch to score.

Hit 81% of Shots

In a way, although he fell short of the record, Line's feat was more spectacular than Alexander the Great's. Line scored at almost every opportunity, hitting over 81 percent of his field goal attempts and 85 percent of his free throws, besides passing off to his teammates when there was equal opportunity to score.

Big Al shot almost every time he could see the hoop, hitting 43 percent of his shots, 67 percent of his foul shots. Also Groza had scored 33 points with nine minutes left, leaving the ball game with five fouls and his record total of points with six minutes and 45 seconds remaining.

Not trying to take anything away from possibly the best player in basketball shoes today, it's just that Jim Line turned in a real bang-up job, one that drew the biggest ovation Alumni Gym has heard since Wah Wah Jones took off a Kentucky warmup jacket, and one that deserved every bit of it.

Line was an Ohio All-State player at Akron North high school for two years. He set a tourney record when he dumped in 32 points—his previous single game high total—the game before Alex Groza's Martins Ferry team knocked Akron North out of the State Tournament. He also established a school season scoring record of 380 points his senior year in 20 games.

Almost Enrolled At Ohio U. Line almost enrolled in Ohio University, and was proffered a scholarship to Ohio State on graduating in the spring of '44, but Carl Staker, former Wildcat star and employee at the Goodyear Co. in Akron, convinced him to play his college ball under Coach Adolph Rupp at Kentucky.

He served 23 months in the Army Tank Corps as a radio operator, and following his discharge reported in Lexington when school opened in the fall of '46. He made the sixth highest score ever recorded on the University's entrance examination and since then, has set an excellent scholastic record in no snap course, mechanical engineering. Three times he has racked up a 3.0 standing, and has an overall standing of 2.8. No man to keep a book in his right hand and a basketball in his left, Line was asked to join the leading men's honorary fraternity last year, being initiated into ODK, whose requirements include numerous campus activities as well as high scholastic marks. He is also a member of Tau Beta Pi—engineering equivalent of Phi Beta Kappa.

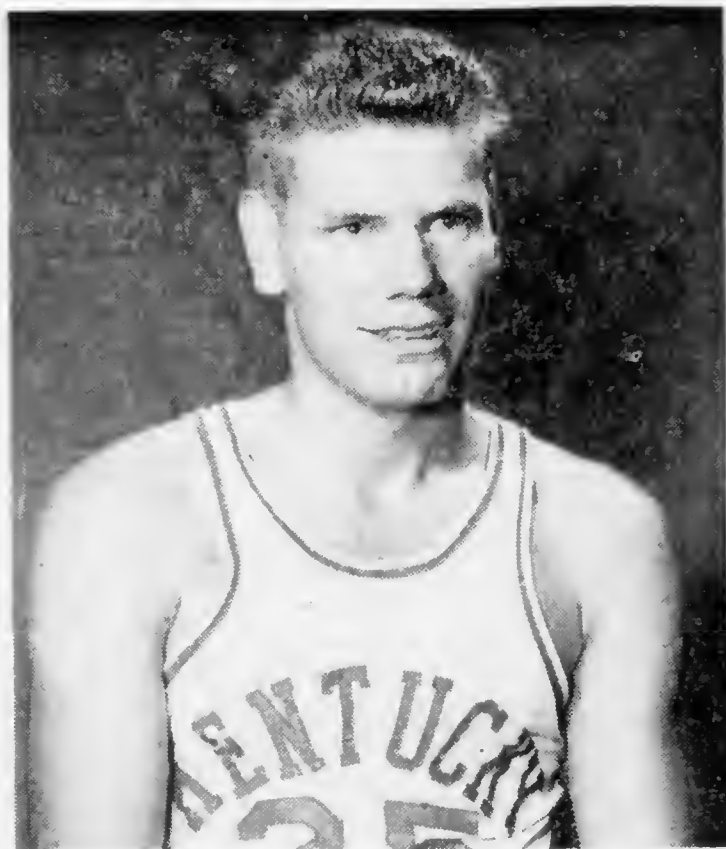

Playing for the Wildcats wasn't all peaches and cream for the freshman lad who had stood Ohioans on their ears with his amazing shooting accuracy. Also returning in the fall of '46 were All-Americans Alex Groza, Ralph Beard, Bob Brannum, Jim Jordan, Jack Parkinson, Wah Jones, and All-Conference players Kenny Rollins, Joe Holland, Jack Tingle, and Dutch Campbell. Press clippings were just waste paper to these guys.

Great Against Utah

However Line did get into every game and hit the hoop on 42 percent of his shots. In the finals of the National Invitational Tournament in New York, when the chips were down, Kentucky trailing Utah in the second half, it was Freshman Jim Line that Coach Adolph Rupp called off the bench to spark the Wildcats. He did too. He balanced the ball next to his left ear and shot five straight time for ten quick points that put the Wildcats right back in the fight, but he fouled out in the waning minutes, and without him, the Cats went down in one of the biggest upsets of the year.

Last season his left arm dangled uselessly off the bench almost all year, until again, when the Wildcats couldn't seem to get going, in the crucial NCAA tourney, Coach Rupp waved him into the fray. He came through in championship style, left-handed in 21 points against a tough Villanova team and the next night, cashing in 15 times against the big noise from the Western Conference, Illinois.

This is his last season. Kentuckians have been waiting three years to see him show his stuff. Last Saturday night they saw it when Jim Line, with a wave of his left arm, accepted nominations for All-American honors from 2850 students in Alumni Gymnasium.

New York And Chicago Newspapers Name Gain On All-American Team

by Earl Conn

Big Bob Gain is definitely an All-American tackle. He has been named on a pair of big newspaper polls during the past two weeks for first-team honors.

The Chicago Tribune conducted a poll of 2,193 collegiate football players throughout the nation and Gain was nominated for the top team.

Then last week, The New York Sun selected Gain on its first-team All-American eleven, after stating that "with few exceptions, the candidates selected are 'iron men,' capable of playing sixty minutes. Equally adept on offense or defense, these durable operatives have the stamina to go the route." This probably explains why Gain was nominated over such other well-known tackles as Wade Walker of Oklahoma; Al Wistert of Michigan; and Jim Martin, of Notre Dame.

The New York Sun explains Gain's selection as follows: "For sheer animal strength it would be hard to match Gain, a former steel worker from the blast furnaces of Weirton, W. Va. In Kentucky's goal line stands against Tennessee, Gain was as unbendable as a steel girder. Bob developed his muscles in the rolling mills and used them effectively on the gridiron."

Others on the N.Y. Sun's eleven were: Backs—Gallifia, Army; Sitko, Notre Dame; Thomas, Oklahoma; and Sella, Princeton. The linemen were: Hart, Notre Dame; Sandusky, Villanova; West, Oklahoma; Tonnenmaker, Minnesota; Franz, California; and Williams, Rice.

Tribune's Team For The Chicago Tribune's team there were: Backs—Sitko, Notre Dame, Gallifia, Army; Walker, SMU; and Justice, North Carolina.

The AP All-American team consisted of Leon Hart, Notre Dame, and J. A. Williams, Rice, at the ends; James Martin, Notre Dame, and Wade Walker, Oklahoma, at the tackles; Rod Franz, California, and John Schneider, Pennsylvania, at the guards; Clayton Tonnenmaker, as the center. The backfield consisted of Arnold Gallifia, Army; Doak Walker, SMU; Charlie Justice, North Carolina; and Emil Sitko, Notre Dame.

However, the entire 1949 AP All-American team is composed of seniors leaving an entirely new selection necessary next year. With his second team nomination this season, Gain is expected to be material for a first string position next season, his last in collegiate ball.

Perhaps Kentucky's best showing of the season, however, was on the All-American team selected in Collier's Magazine by the American Football Coaches Association.

Although no Kentucky player made the first team of the recognized All-American team, three were included on the honorable mention list. Collier's lists no second or third teams.

Only 42 players were able to make this exclusive honorable mention list and Gain, Harry Ulinski, Kentucky's center, and Vito "Babe" Parilli, Kentucky's sophomore quarterback, were the Kentuckians who were listed.

Eight tackles made the honorable mention list including Gain.

Four honorable mention centers were listed by the coaches including Ulinski.

Parilli had very exclusive company at the honorable mention quarterback position. Only three were named and they were Eddie LaBaron, the great College of Pacific backfield ace; Bobby Williams, the sensational Notre Dame junior; and Kentucky's own sophomore, Vito Parilli. To be named in the same breath with these two great aces appears to be an honor in itself.

Collier's Eleven

Picked on Collier's first string All-American team were the following: Hart, Notre Dame, and Williams, Rice, at the ends; Walker, Oklahoma, and Leo Nomellini, Minnesota, at the tackles; Franz, California, and Bernie Barkowski, Pittsburgh, at the guards; and Tonnenmaker, Minnesota, at the center. The backfield consisted of Gallifia, Justice, Sitko, and a newcomer upon the scene, Lynn Chandois, Michigan State.

All-South

Kentucky also hit the top on the All-Sectional teams announced the week before by Collier's. Kentucky placed three men on the All-South team selected by the coaches—Gain, Ulinski, and Parilli.

The complete All-South team was comprised of Art Weiner, North Carolina, and John O'Quinn, at the ends; Bob Gain, Kentucky, and Lou Creekmur, William and Mary, at the tackles; Jim Crawford, Mississippi, and Bob Ward, Maryland, at the guards; Harry Ulinski, Kentucky, at the center; and Vito Parilli, Kentucky; Charlie Justice, North Carolina; Herb Rich, Vanderbilt; and Eddie Price, Tulane, in the backfield.

Kentucky was also named as the surprise team in the south by the magazine. Also listed under the honorable mentions in the south were Benny Zaranka at end and Don "Dopey" Phelps as a halfback.

All-Conference

Two Kentuckians were elected to the All-SEC team for 1949. Gain was named as the first string tackle along with Carl Copp, Vanderbilt,

Kitten Cagers Beat Ft. Knox

by Kent Hollingsworth

The University of Kentucky freshmen basketball team won its second game of the season last Saturday night in a preliminary game to the varsity tilt with Indiana Central.

The Kittens trimmed Fort Knox, 65-43, with Forward Frank Ramsey, 6-3, 180-pounder from Madisonville, Ky., the high man Ramsey, a former All-State basketball and baseball player, threw in a total of 18 points. He is at the present time the top scorer for the season for Coach Harry Lancaster's yearlings.

Dwight Price, another forward, was second with 13 markers. The 6-2, 175-pound lad was a former All-State cager for University High School of Lexington last year.

The Tucky tyros now have beaten the Berea Freshmen and Fort Knox, but were upset on Nov. 28, when the Kentucky Wesleyan frosh beat them, for the first loss by a UK freshman basketball team since before the war. Last season's yearlings went undefeated in 15 games. In '46 and '47, Kentucky had no team strictly for first-year men as all players including freshmen were eligible for varsity competition.

Two guards who turned in creditable performances were Linde Galt, 5-11 lad from Clark County High of Winchester, Ky., and six-foot Dick Fikrone, promising prospect from Chicago's Lane Tech.

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 2—Largest advance sale in the year of Orange Bowl Festivals is reported for reserved seats at the King Orange Jamboree parade New Year's Eve and at the fireworks spectacle Jan. 3 where the parade and "twelve halves" show of the Santa Clara-Kentucky game will be reenacted.

while Harry Ulinski was listed as the first team center.

Vito Parilli was named on the second string All-SEC team while Pat James received honorable mention at guard along with Don Phelps in the backfield.

Listed on the first team 1949 All-SEC team were Jack Stribling, Mississippi, and Bud Sherrod, Tennessee, at the ends; Gain, Kentucky, and Copp, Vanderbilt, at the tackles; Jimmy Crawford, Mississippi, and Ed Holdnak, Alabama, at the guards; Ulinski, Kentucky, as the center. The backfield consisted of Johnny Dotley, Mississippi; Eddie Price, Tulane; Chuck Hunsinger, Florida; and Travis Tidwell, Auburn.

All-Sophomore Squad

Parilli gained another honor when he led all balloting for the All-SEC sophomore team selected by the Associated Press. Only other Kentuckian to make the all-soph team was Charlie McClendon selected as one of the ends. Bill Leskovar, Kentucky's pile driving fullback, was named to the second team.

Line Scores 37 As Cagers Clip Hoosier Quintet 84-61

by Kent Hollingsworth

A brand new Wildcat basketball team, fresh, flashy and fast, whipped a determined Indiana Central team 84-61, after leading only 62-51 midway in the last period, for Kentucky's 77th straight victory in Alumni Gym, last Saturday night.

Jim Line hit almost everything he shot at, connecting 13 times in 16 attempts from the field and 11 times in 13 tries at the free throw line for a near record total of 37 points. The Akron senior left the floor with nine minutes and 45 seconds remaining with five personal fouls against him, but with an ovation for him that sent the roof on Alumni Gym.

Big Bill Spivey, a little tight in the first half and not helped much by jeers from miracle-seeking students, looked good in the second half, fighting hard under the basket for rebounds, blocking crisp shots, and winding up the evening with a 16 point total. He's due to get better with every game.

St. John's Has Strong Quintet For 1949-50

Kentucky's Wildcats will make their lone appearance of the regular season in New York's Madison Square Garden Thursday when they tangle with the strong St. John's Redmen of Brooklyn.

This tilt will be the first major test for the Wildcats following games with Indiana Central and Western Ontario and the eyes of the basketball world will undoubtedly be focused on the Garden that night to see just what the Cats have this season.

St. John's will field a veteran team to face the Cats in their engagement. Dick McGuire has graduated but the remainder of the Redman team is still around.

The Cats stopped the Redmen last year 57-30 for one of the Brooklyn club's nine defeats — the Redmen winning 16 games last season.

Captain and second highest scorer last season for the club, Gerald Calabrese, will be the boy who will probably give Kentucky the most trouble. This year will be his fourth season on the club as it will for Joe Barreras, John Dalton, and Ed Redding.

St. John's can throw a lot of height at the Cats if they desire to. Bob Zawoluk at six-six is their biggest man, and will probably play the pivot for the Redmen. Calabrese stands 5'11, while Tom O'Shea, a junior, stands 6'4", as does Ray Tully, a sophomore.

The Redmen flashed an example of their explosive power last Saturday when they trimmed Fort Monmouth 96-50.

Following the St. John's game, the Wildcats will meet DePaul in Louisville Dec. 21, and then journey to West Lafayette, Ind., to meet Purdue Dec. 23. The Cats will play in the Sugar Bowl tourney Dec. 29 and 30 in New Orleans.

DisKintucky Sports Review

— By Tom Diskin, Sports Editor —

Broad a little the Kentucky-Santa Clara bowl game on a nation-wide hookup will be CBS Mc Allen, according to Ken Kuhn, sports publicist for UK.

Allen has been mentioned by several radio columnists as top candidate for the Sportscaster of the Year award. The golden-tongued Allen is well-known especially around New York, where he broadcasts the Yankee baseball games. He also is usually named to call the World Series along with Red Barber.

Approximately 500 persons attended the annual Alumni Association banquet last Monday night in the Student Union Bluegrass Room.

Principal speaker was Dr. A. D. Kirwan, dean of arts and former Kentucky and coach.

Coch Paul Bryant spoke later on the past season, and the training plans for the coming Orange Bowl game.

Athletic Director R. A. Shively served as toastmaster.

Among these various short talks were UK President Herman Lee Donovan; Alumni President J. Stephen Watkins; Team Captain Harry Ulsick; and Larry Shropshire, sports editor of The Leader, who paid tribute to the late Buck Weaver, former sports writer for The Louisville Times, and a sincere friend of this University.

The 13 outstanding football seniors were presented with engraved suit-winding wrist watches. They were: Charles Bentley; Bill Ball; Jerry Claiborne; Ralph Gentry; Dick Holway; Jim Howe; Lloyd McDermott; Nick Odilivak; Dopes Phelps; Ray Porter; Lee Truman; Harry Ulsick; and Charles Bradshaw, who is now serving on the UK coaching staff.

In his talk, Coach Bryant said that the present team was the "finest group of boys ever gotten together on any athletic field." He added that "the biggest kick I ever got was going to the bowl. It will be the most important game ever played by a Kentucky team." He stated that he wanted the Most Valuable Player trophy held back until after the game with Santa Clara.

The program, which was arranged by Miss Helen King, executive secretary of the Alumni Association, closed with the crowd singing "On, On, U. of K."

Considering the fact that the University's basketball team had two new sophomores in the starting lineup last Saturday against Indiana Central, we think that their showing against the Hoosiers was very creditable.

Jim Lane, in the opening game, gave one of the greatest demonstrations of shooting accuracy ever seen in the 26-year-old Alumni Gym.

Bill Spivey, center, and Whitey Pearson, guard, who were the new sophomores that started the game played well. We think Pearson did an excellent job in this initial starting assignment. He is potentially a great ball player, just like Spivey.

The Bill settled down in the second half after a somewhat shaky start. To those few students who tend to be impatient with Spivey because he isn't another Groza, we would like to point out a few facts and figures.

In his freshman year, another seven-footer named Bob Kurland, scored only an average of 2.5 points per game in 21 contests for Oklahoma A & M during the 1942-43 season.

Kurland boasted that to a 13-point average in his sophomore year; then 17 as a junior; and in his final campaign hit for 19-points per game. Alex Groza also continued to improve with each season. In 1946-47, he averaged 10 points per game; in 1947-48, 12 points; and last season, he went up to a 20.5 mark.

George Mikan, in his first year, averaged 11; then 18 points as a soph; 23 in each of his third and fourth seasons on the varsity.

So practically in each instance, "the big boys got tougher each year." We definitely feel that Spivey will be the same way. If he averages 12 points per game this season, he will be topping Mikan's record for his initial year against varsity competition.

Just give Spivey a fair chance. He has tremendous possibilities. In fact, we sincerely believe that before he graduates from UK, he might break Groza's scoring records.

So try to keep this in mind when you watch the Georgia Goliath in action this season. Let's give him and all the other UK players our full support. Give a boost instead of a knock.

WAA News

The Woman's Athletic Association will start playing basketball soon after Christmas. The games are not definitely scheduled as yet. However, the WAA will play several games with its usual rivals: University of Cincinnati, Eastern Nazareth of Louisville, and possibly, the University of Louisville.

Last year's record was very good. UK winning 10 and losing one game. Several games were held with each school and two separate groups were playing the A's and the B's. These made up a total of eleven games. The A group competed with U.C. twice and won both games. Not willing to be outdone, group B did likewise. To keep the winning record against U.C. UK defeated them again in a basketball game at a joint playday.

When UK met Eastern, a mighty close scramble followed, but the Blue and White came out on top four times, two wins for the A group, and a before two wins for the B's.

In playing Nazareth College, UK's WAA met its match. When Nazareth came last, they took home the victory, but in the second game at Louisville, Nazareth was defeated.

Much credit for the WAA's success goes to the '48-'49 president, Charlene Orr, for her fine leadership and spirit. Some of the most outstanding players were Betty Tandy, Vivian Coates, Bernadette Arent, Charlene Orr, "Wanda" Winfough. This "Be" five if you'll excuse the expression, graduated last year, but the WAA has many very able players to take their places. This is due to the fact that

Girl's Fencing Team

A girls' intramural fencing team is to be started soon. Anyone interested should contact the Physical Education office sometime next week.

WAA Volleyball Enters Semifinals

The WAA is sponsoring an intramural volleyball tournament with 16 teams entered, comprising four divisions.

Holding top place for the first division is the Tri Deltas, Alpha Xi Delta and Kappa Alpha. They are tied for first place in the second division. Eliminations of the four divisions will be held next week, with a cup going to the winner.

Martha Durham, Kappa Alpha Theta, is in charge of the volleyball program.

HARRY ULSICK, captain of the football team, and DICK HOLWAY, on the right, who serves as alternate captain, pose for a picture at the Alumni Association banquet last Monday evening in the Student Union Building. These two senior linemen will lead the Cats into the Orange Bowl on Jan. 2nd. A replica of the bowl, filled with Florida oranges is seen in the foreground.

The time is set for five o'clock, however anyone unable to attend may contact Patton in his office in White Hall.

Western Ontario Meets Cats Here Tomorrow

LONDON, Ont., Dec. 7.—Western Ontario's Mustangs face their toughest basketball task of the 1949-50 season Saturday when they play the powerful Kentucky Wildcats in Lexington, Ky.

Johnny Metras' charges, a record of one win and two setbacks as this was written, will be at full strength for the Kentucky invasion. The Wildcats, rated at the top of the American college cage teams, are reported almost as strong as ever despite the graduation of All-Americans Alex Groza, Ralph Beard and Wah-Wah Jones.

TICKET NO. 7

Odd-numbered student books will be good for admission to tomorrow night's Kentucky-Western Ontario basketball game in Alumni Gym, which will get underway at 8 p.m. Ticket No. 7 will be needed. It will be the last home game for the Cats until Jan. 9, when North Carolina will play here.

Coch Metras will take a 10-man squad to the Blue Grass state in the hope of giving the Kentucky quintet a real battle.

Last Saturday in Detroit, the Mustangs came up with their first win of the season when they upset Wayne Tartars of Detroit 49-38. So far this week, the Mustangs cage team has been drilling hard, stressing conditioning and fast break plays.

Feature of the week-end with Assumption College of Windsor and with Wayne, was the scoring of Paul Thomas. The Niagara Falls guard, who always had a good shot, really came into his own. For the first time in two years, Thomas started shooting instead of passing all the time and as a result racked up 27 points in the two games.

In Windsor, big Harry Wade, towering forward had a great night, piling up 16 points. With the nine he tallied against Wayne, this gives Wade a total of 32 points for the three games so far for Ontario.

The play of Doug Horne in Detroit also cheered up Metras. Horne, a player who needs confidence, did well in the short time he was out on the floor, netting five points.

In the individual scoring race, Wade and Thomas are tied for the leadership with 32 points each. George Wearing has 13 and Bill Ford 11 points for the season.

Wildcats To Train For Bowl At Cocoa, Fla.; Leave Dec. 19

The Kentucky Wildcat football team will start light practice next Monday on Stoll Field. It will be mainly for conditioning the squad for the forthcoming tilt with Santa Clara in the Orange Bowl 24 days from now.

Coch Bryant announced that on Monday, Dec. 19, after a week's position in the Jasper, Minn. High School.

Last year Miss Shea taught English in the Aberdeen-Huntington Township High School.
